

Aloha High School

2007-2008

A Day in the Life of . . . : $1,000

Sponsor – Verizon Foundation

Students will use photography and writing as a tool for documenting people and places in their community. The project uses photography as a vehicle to connect writing and critical thinking.

Goin' to the Zoo!: $830

English Language Learners (ELL) will research the animals of the Cascades in their classroom, and use this knowledge as volunteer docents at the Oregon Zoo Cascade exhibit using English and their first language.

High School/Elementary Literacy Project (H.E.L.P.): $1,000

Sponsor – Verizon Foundation

The Aloha High acting class will perform The Emperor's New Clothes for Kinnaman Elementary students. The performance occurs after the elementary students have studied the story in their classroom and reviewed a high school produced video lesson on theater etiquette.

BEF After-the-Bell Student Success Award: $1,000

Funding provided to students who are unable to afford the activity participation fee for such things as sports, band, drama, and choir.

BEF Community Awards: $2,825

(Awarded to activity groups that assist with the annual BEF Phone campaign)
Black Cultural Club, Key Club, Ski Team, Theater, Latino Leadership, Dance Team

2006-2007

Cascade Trail: $984.31

After researching the animals of the Cascades, English Language Learners (ELL) will work at the various "Discovery Carts" located throughout the exhibit. Students will have opportunities to provide information about the various animals in both English and their first language.

Aloha High School, continued

Literacy Workshop: $1,000

Sponsor – Verizon Foundation

The literacy workshop focuses on vocabulary in addition to before, during and after reading strategies. Teachers from different content areas will teach the workshop to emphasize literacy across the curriculum.

BEF After-the-Bell Student Success Award: $1,800

To assist students with participation fees, to help ensure that all students can participate in high school sports and activities.

BEF Community Awards: $2,000

(Awarded to activity groups that assist with the annual BEF Phone campaign)

Women's Lacrosse, Ski Team, Men's Lacrosse, Men's basketball